READING (Time: 15 minutes, Maximum points – 10)

Task 1. Read the text and find the correct answer.

I live in a big city. It is beautiful and one of the oldest in the UK. It's famous for its Universities and colleges. Its name is Cambridge. The first University was founded there. It was in the 13th century for the first time note. The bishops were the teachers as in many others Universities and colleges. People were afraid of the nature and believed the words of churches, which had a real power in that time. But there were people who tried to explain some facts in nature and in life. Some of them became famous and we know them very well. Such as Newton, Avicenna, Vinci. We are proud of them. The most famous was Nostradamus who was the greatest forecaster. His notes are still come true.

Nostradamus Michel De Nostradame, otherwise known as Nostradamus was born December 14, 1503. At the age of 14, Nostradame entered the University of Avignon to study medicine. After that, he traveled throughout France and Italy, treating victims of the plague. He became known for creating a "rose pill» (rich in Vitamin C) that provided some relief for patients with mild cases of the plague.

In 1550, Nostradamus believed that he could predict the future and started to publish his predictions. He planned to write 10 books, which would contain 100 predictions forecasting the next 2,000 years. In 1555 he published Les Propheties, a collection of his major, long-term predictions. Some people nowadays believe they will come true.

WRITING (Time: 15 minutes, Maximum points – 10)

Read a part of Peter's letter and write an answer.

... My father told me that we are going to celebrate my birthday together. He is planning to book a table in a cafe. I'd like to stay at home and invite my friends but I'm not sure.

Where did you have your last birthday party? What birthday traditions do you follow in your family? How do you want to celebrate your birthday next year?

Best wishes,

Peter

Write 80-100 words

Remember the rules of letter writing

Hello, Peter.

I celebrated my last birthday in my dacha. My family has a tradition of gathering at a festive table with our friends. I would like to celebrate my next birthday on a quest.

Best wishes,

Artem^{yo}
